Big Three Decrees Seal War-Making Fate Of Germany

Bird Appetite

Mrs. Fred Martini, wife of the lion house keeper at the Bronx Zoo in New York, feeds her newest baby young robin whose mother is A. W. O. L. She has foster-mothered many of the zoo's young animals, including young leopards, lion and tiger cubs, etc., treating them as if they were ordinary kittens.

Yamashita In His Last Stand

Jap Leader Making Final Desperate Stand In Northern Luzon

MANILA, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita, the so-called "Tiger of Malaya," when Japan was having an easy time of it in the Pacific, was making his last desperate stand today in the most rugged region of northern Luzon.

The Jap general's final stronghold on the capital island of the Philippines has narrowed down to the wildest part of the Cordillera mountains. He is believed to have fled to the mountain town of Hungadun, northwest of Kianjan which veteran Sixth Division doughboys captured several weeks ago.

Hard-driving Sixth Division mountaineers advancing on Hungadun have killed 82 Japs and captured 142 in the past three days. Yamashita has little opportunity of further retreat and starving remnants of his once-powerful 14th army are putting up determined, last-ditch resistance.

PA NEWC Observes

Mrs. M. J. Conner of 1109 DuShane street reports to Pa Newc that she picked the first dozen of corn from her victory garden this year.

Official temperature got up to 92 degrees here on Thursday. Overnight the weather changed a little and it was cooler this morning, with some humidity. Yesterday was one of the hottest days of the present summer.

Repair of local streets and highways damaged by last winter's severe weather will continue, the current detour bulletin of the State Highway department reveals. Resurfacing on Routes 18, 62, and 108 will continue through October, the bulletin states. There are no real highway projects going on in the district, the bulletin shows.

J. H. Gross of 489 Neshannock avenue joins the list of successful early gardeners today. He reports that cabbage from his victory garden was large enough for use last Sunday and that he has been enjoying ripe tomatoes from his garden for the past three weeks.

Powers Of War-Making Stripped From Germany By Big Three Decisions

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Sweeping agreements achieved by the "Big Three" at Potsdam promised today to stabilize Europe by stripping Germany of all her war-making powers for generations to come.

Discussion for some time was expected to center on whether Soviet Premier Joseph Stalin had come out of the three-week discussions the winner or whether President Truman and British Prime Minister Clement Attlee had gained the most concessions.

A study of the 6,000-word document framed at the historic Cecilienhof near Potsdam indicated that the western powers had gained several important points. Several questions raised by Stalin were relegated to future decisions. On the matter of reparations, which were of keenest interest, Stalin was regarded as having won his will.

No Slave Labor Demand
However, it was to be noted in this connection that, though Stalin was reported to have demanded German "slave labor" to rebuild his shattered cities, this type of reparations apparently has been abandoned.

Some American observers were, at first glance, disappointed to see no indication of the Soviet Union's future intentions toward Japan. Closer observation brought out that the "Big Three" declaration carried heavy implications for Moscow's attitude on Japan.

Fastest Plane Time Is Slower Back To Dayton

DAYTON, O., Aug. 3.—(INS)—The army's fastest plane, the jet-propelled "Shooting Star" which flew the 545 miles from Dayton to New York in 62 minutes, today failed to approach its return journey, which was marked by 18 minutes on the return journey.

Col. William H. Council, who flew the record-breaking flight, took an hour and 25 minutes for the return journey. However, just as he had to do at New York, Council was forced to circle the Wright field area for about a half-hour before he could set his sleek speedster down.

Meanwhile, a sister ship of the record-breaking plane crashed near Brandenburg, Ky., yesterday afternoon, killing the pilot, Maj. Ira Boyd Jones of Lancaster, S. C., the field reported.

The plane had been on a routine test flight to an army field in Texas. Major Jones, 25, had served 11 months in the China-Burma-India theater.

City Taxpayers Pay $582,779 School Tax Last Month

Over Half Of Year's School Tax Assessment Paid Just Before Discount Deadline

Racing to get themselves in the one per cent discount allowed until August 1, New Castle citizens paid $582,779 worth of school taxes during the month of July, reports City Treasurer Bernard Hanlon.

This amount, paid in one month, is over half of the total school tax assessment for the year—$979,304. The June collection was $204,360.39, far below the unusual July total.

In fact, asserts Mr. Hanlon, there has not been a month like July, 1945, for many a year, and all because the statements were late in going out. This year, the taxpayers didn't receive their statements until the middle of June, and payments which otherwise might have been spread out were concentrated in the one month.

Beginning October 1, a five per cent penalty will be added on all school taxes unpaid before that date, the treasurer adds warningly.

Senators Ask, What About War On Japs

Lack Of Any Mention Of War In Big Three Report Puzzles Senators

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Some senators, after studying the "Big Three" announcement of the results of the Potsdam conference, asked today: "What about the war against Japan?"

Senators who searched for words on this question found only one statement that might be interpreted as indicating this war was discussed.

Military Matters Discussed
The statement said: "During the conference there were meetings between the chiefs of staff of the three governments on military matters of common interest."

"It is strange and it amazes me that Russia in this announcement," (Continued on Page Two)

Japan's Harbors Are Blockaded By Allied Mines

GUAM, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Strategic air forces headquarters disclosed today that Japan has been almost completely blockaded by sustained B-29 mining operations in coastal waters.

The importation of food and other products necessary to the war has been reduced by 75 per cent in the past four months. Every harbor of importance throughout Japan's home islands has been closed by mines.

These home harbors as well as ports on the Asiatic continent as far north as Rastin, within 20 miles of the Siberian border, have been and are constantly being mined.

Jap Ports Inactive
The headquarters announcement left no doubt concerning the virtually inactive state of all important Jap ports.

The first phase of the effective serial mining by Superforts was begun on March 27 when Japan had access to all shipping lanes and the great industrial cities of Southern Honshu depended on water transportation for 75 per cent of its goods.

The target in this first mission was the Shimonoseki strait—vital waterway between Honshu and Kyushu—which was heavily sowed by B-29 mine-layers in support of the Okinawa operations.

These blockading operations prevented Japan's remaining fleet units from rushing against our forces under cover of the western Kyushu shore.

Italians Jubilant Over Recognition

ROME, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Italians were jubilant today over the Big Three decision to admit Italy to the United Nations after conclusion of a peace treaty and forming of a Democratic government.

Crown Prince Umberto, lieutenant of the realm, expressed the gratitude of the Italian people "to the three great democracies."

"Italy's future depends on the peace conditions," Umberto said. "We place our hopes in their hands."

Prime Minister Parri said that the "Potsdam communique holds recognition of the sincere efforts of Italy to put herself at the side of the United Nations and to give herself a democratic way of life."

New Air Raids On Four Towns In Tokyo Area

American Fliers Follow Up Huge B-29 Raids With Another Smash

ROYAL CEREMONY LIKELY DISRUPTED
By JOHN R. HENRY
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

GUAM, Aug. 3.—A strong force of P-51 Mustang fighters led by B-29 Superforts struck four suburban towns in the Tokyo-Yokohama area today in a quick follow-up of a similar assault on the teeming Osaka-Kobe region on battered Honshu.

The Japanese Demet agency reported that "military targets," presumably airfields and communications facilities, were attacked at scattered points in the cities of Utsunomiya, Omiya, Maebashi and Takasaki.

The number of participating Superforts were described as small and the attacking Mustangs were said to be "about 100."

Disrupt Royal Ceremony
Roaring in as they did at 10 a. m., according to Tokyo's own admission—the American raiders probably disrupted a royal ceremony held this morning at the Imperial palace.

An earlier Tokyo broadcast revealed that Emperor Hirohito had donned "full military uniform" to receive three military staff college undergraduates who expect to be assigned shortly to frontline duties.

Present at the ceremony in addition to the unidentified undergraduates and the Emperor were (Continued on Page Two)

Potsdam Results Given Acclaim By Papers In London

LONDON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—London newspapers were virtually unanimous today in praising the Potsdam conference decisions as offering new hope for the world's future.

"The continued cooperation among the big three powers," the papers said, "is a healthy partnership which exists among the major powers, that the big three is capable of thinking with one mind and that is a splendid omen," the Daily Herald declared.

Pointing out that "Potsdam has not settled everything," the Daily Telegraph said:

"The whole tone and substance of the Potsdam agreements must completely dissolve the suspicion reported to exist in some European quarters that there is any substantial divergence in attitude among the big powers toward Germany."

Approving the decisions regarding Spain as a "death sentence" to the Franco regime, some editorial comment pointed to the conference's failure to provide for the future of such small countries as Belgium, Holland and Norway and for the status of the Italian colonies.

"But," added the Daily Telegraph, "the conference has done a good, practical, unselfish and promising job on which all responsible are to be congratulated."

Lana Turner Loses Pin, Worth $35,000

HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Lana Turner, the screen's sweeter girl, has lost her diamond brooch—a little affair valued at $35,000.

Miss Turner, asking the aid of the sheriff's department and insurance detectives in tracking down the pin, said it was being admired by friends Wednesday night as they left one Sunset strip night to go to another.

When Miss Turner reached the second restaurant, the brooch was missing. The actress said the ornament, consisting of 142 diamonds, was pinned on her evening gown.

MOSCOW PLEASED

Retired Farmer Is Burned To Death

SOMERSET, Pa., Aug. 3.—(INS)—Jacob C. Lichty, 62, retired Somerset county farmer and school teacher, was burned to death today when fire destroyed his home two miles north of Somerset.

Bombers Sink Twelve More Enemy Ships

OKINAWA, Aug. 3.—(INS)—More than 525 army bombers from Okinawa fields wrought fresh havoc in their latest strikes against Kyushu Wednesday.

They sank twelve Jap ships and damaged thirteen others, including a docked submarine.

They set fire to the giant Mitsubishi plant, smashed the great Akaura Engine Works at Nagasaki, exploded oil storage tanks and pounded railroads.

Vast columns of smoke and flames sprang up, guiding each succeeding wave to their targets from 25 miles away.

Six of 36 intercepting Jap fighters were shot down.

Several American planes were damaged but all returned safely.

New Castle Auto Party In Crash

Bus And Auto In Collision At Mercer This Morning—Five Local Persons Hurt

(Special To The News)
MERCER, Pa., Aug. 3.—Shortly before 9 o'clock, this morning a bus of the Bryant Transportation Company operating between Grove City, Mercer and Sharon, with 17 passengers, was involved in a collision at the intersection of West Market street and South Shenango street, Mercer. The bus, driven by Kenneth Sarile, 29 years of age, of Grove City, was traveling to Sharon.

The other car involved in the accident was driven by Henry Gibson, age 64 years, of 1129 South Mill street, New Castle, Pa.

According to the police report of Mercer, Gibson failed to observe a stop sign at the intersection, and struck the bus.

All passengers of the bus were admitted to the Mercer Cottage hospital, Mercer, where none was found to be in a critical condition, but all were given treatment.

Local Persons Hurt
In addition to the driver, Henry Gibson, four other local passengers were in the Gibson car traveling to a camp meeting at Conestogville, Pa. D. 2 Sharpsville, brother of Mrs. Hazel Palmer, of Grove City, who was killed last week in an auto accident, not very far from the scene of the bus crash accident. A Mrs. William Campbell of Pardo, Pa., and her four children, ranging from four to eleven years, were also passengers.

Chief of police, L. H. Ringer, of Mercer, is conducting the investigation. The New Castle driver is confined to the hospital.

Many Japanese Killed In Bomb Attacks On Ships

MANILA, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Forty-one Jap ships, including 15 troop-laden junks, were reported sunk or damaged today by planes of General Douglas MacArthur's command.

MacArthur's communique reported that many Japanese personnel were killed when the 15 junks were attacked by Allied air patrols off the Indo-China coast.

A revised report, not contained in the communique, revealed in addition that Okinawa-based bombers and fighters had sunk four freighters, severely damaged six more cargo ships and hit two destroyer escorts Tuesday in waters off Kyushu. In Kyushu's Sasebo harbor on Tuesday near misses were scored on two Jap aircraft carriers.

Far East Air Forces planes, based on Okinawa, have blasted almost 300 Jap ships since they joined the blockade of enemy home shipping lanes just a month ago.

Joe Doakes Now An Army Pilot

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 3.—(INS)—In case you've been wondering whatever became of Joe Doakes, he's an army pilot now, and a good one too.

Doakes' whereabouts was disclosed today in a dispatch from Pat Robinson, INS war correspondent on Okinawa.

"Li Joe Doakes to Kansas City, Mo.," Robinson's dispatch reported, "scored hits on a tanker."

Robinson furnished the information in reporting the results of a bomber strike against Jap shipping. To make certain there was no mistake, Robinson placed the word "correct" in parenthesis after Joe Doakes' name.

Laval Goes On Witness Stand In Petain's Trial

Admits Secret Pact Made With Mussolini On Abyssinia Attack

LAVAL HEAVILY GUARDED IN COURT (BULLETIN)

PARIS, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Pierre Laval, former Vichy prime minister, admitted to a French court of justice today that from the very beginning he believed in a German victory.

"A sensible man could not believe anything except a German victory," Laval said. "Hitler told me personally: 'I do not want to make a peace of vengeance.'"

By THURSTON MACAULEY
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

PARIS, Aug. 3.—Pierre Laval admitted today that he had made a secret pact with the late Benito Mussolini giving the Italian dictator a free hand in Abyssinia.

The former Vichy premier, testifying in the treason trial of Marshal Henri Philippe Petain in Paris, added that he cautioned Il Duce not to use force in his African venture.

Mussolini did what he liked. Abyssinia remains his. Laval said.

Under Armed Guard
So armed guards led Laval to his seat on the crowded court room at 125, rue de la Harpe, in EWT. Five minutes later the session was started.

Laval turned and then wore a gray striped suit. In the preliminary questioning to the court he gave Paris as his address and his age as 62.

"I deplore Fascism," Laval said, "but I proved stronger than our love of peace."

He described a meeting he had with the Duke of Windsor at that time the Prince of Wales, at the time the House-Laval pact was signed.

"I was in Geneva when Anthony Eden told me Edward wants to see me," Laval said. "I went to the British embassy where the Prince and I conferred in French."

For Mary Ellen could get some lamb or pork or beef or ham, today you're lucky if you get some ribs or some spareribs. Now spareribs had that Mary went the line no doubt you know, but this is it. To quote again, the lamb was sure to go. Today if you could get some lamb today take it with you too to make certain that good old, the weather's eighty-two.

Japan Must Be Invaded, Says British Bishop

Defeat On Own Soil Is Only Thing Which Will Breach Military Hold, Prelate Says

By THURSTON MACALEY
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

LONDON.—Dr. Gordon John Walsh, Assistant Bishop of Ely, who has spent more than a quarter of a century in Japan declared today that the Japanese will have to be defeated on their own soil.

Dr. Walsh, who went to Nippon in 1914 and remained until 1940, said he didn't believe that the American Super-Fortress raids on Japanese cities will lead to panic. "The Japanese," he observed, "are used to calamities—earthquakes, storms, floods, fires which wipe out half a great city in a few hours. They have learned to regard disaster fatalistically."

May Fight To Last
"I do not believe they will give up until they are actually invaded and defeated upon their own soil. And even after an invasion they will probably fight it out to the last."

As to the best place to invade, Dr. Walsh pointed out that Japan consists of almost unpopulated mountains and thickly populated lowlands.

It does not seem to matter much where in the lowlands we invade, he declared. "Probably it would have to be in the central islands of Honshu."

Never Invaded
In all Japanese history, said Dr. Walsh, there has never been an invasion. "If an invasion succeeds, the whole theory of the supremacy of the Emperor and the military oligarchy may well be discarded after invasion. It is the only hope I see of re-educating Japan."

SENATORS ASK WHAT ABOUT WAR ON JAPS

has not revealed her intention to aid us toward final victory in the war with Japan," said Sen. Tom Stewart (D) Tenn.

"Conspicuous in its absence is any mention of entry of Russia into the war against Japan," said Sen. Warren Magnuson (D) Wash. "But that is not unusual because there is a lack of appreciation of the military problems involved in Russian entry into the war, such as the existence of only one railroad to carry supplies to Siberia."

Possibly it was determined that Russia, as an Allied neutral, might be of more value than actual entry into war. Apparently she was not asked to come in. I believe the bulk of American thinking is that she might as well stay out."

See Disappointment
"There will be disappointment among the American people that there is no statement concerning the war in the Pacific," said Sen. Raymond Willis (R) Ind. "It is to be hoped that there is some unrevealed information about this war."

Sen. Robert A. Taft (R) Ohio, assailed some phases of the "Big Three" agreement while Sen. Tom Connally (D) Tex., chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, and other Democrats, generally applauded it.

"President Truman has assumed to speak for the United States in settling many of the most controversial boundaries and terms to be imposed on Germany without any consultation with the Senate or the people of the United States," Taft said.

"Apparently all other questions are to be settled in secret by a council of foreign ministers, so that they really is no need for a peace conference."

In effect he said, the conference recognized the right of Russia to do as she pleases with Poland.

Sen. Kenneth McKellar (D) Tenn., president pro tempore of the Senate, said a hasty reading of the conference report "has made a most favorable impression on me."

"On the whole it appears to me to be a very fine document," said Sen. Claude Pepper (D) Fla. "The settlements seem sensible and are not such as cannot be altered if necessary. I strongly approve of what they say about Spain not being eligible for membership in the United Nations."

Wife Beater Is Placed In Jail

BURGETTSTOWN, Pa., Aug. 3.—(INS)—Mike Melnyk, 31, was in Washington county jail today awaiting a hearing before Justice of the Peace W. J. Whalen, Jr., on charges of assault and battery with intent to kill.

Missing Nurse Returns Home

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—(INS)—

Temple University hospital authorities today were notified that Student Nurse Jean K. Sears, 19, who disappeared from the hospital on Monday, returned to her home in Baltimore, Md.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Chauncey L. Sears, wife of an industrial executive, said Jean told her she had gone to New York to seek another job because she was discouraged over her future in nursing.

Part of Jean's depression over nursing, Mrs. Sears said, was due to an auto injury which forced her to limp slightly.

NEW AIR RAIDS ON FOUR TOWNS IN TOKYO AREA

Yoshihiro Umezaki, chief of the Japanese general staff, and Gen. Prince Tsuneyoshi Kaya, president of the military staff college.

Tokyo claimed that three attacking planes had been shot down and two others damaged, according to enemy broadcasts intercepted by the FCC.

Mass Destruction

Five airfields, fuel transportation facilities and factories in the Osaka-Kobe industrial area were strewn with mounting rubble in the wake of another slashing attack by 139 Iwo Jima-based Mustangs.

Striking for the second time in as many days, the low-flying P-51s slammed rockets and withering gun fire into aircraft hangars and buildings.

Four factories, a refinery, natural gas tanks and railway rolling stock in the Nagato-Toyohashi yards.

Anti-aircraft fire ranged from meager to moderate causing damage to eleven of the attacking Mustangs but all returned safely to two fields. One airborne Jap plane in the area fled.

Follows B-29 Smash

The assault followed up yesterday's gigantic pre-dawn smash against four Honbu cities and an oil center near Tokyo by 320 Superforts carrying 6,632 tons of explosives—the greatest single load of aerial destruction in aviation history.

Additional reports on the massive B-29 onslaught, General Carl Spaatz, commanding U.S. strategic air forces, announced today, showed that two Superforts were damaged in air combat and four more hit by anti-aircraft fire ranging from moderate to slight to none at all.

A total of 29 Jap night fighters were encountered and one B-29 was lost.

Radio Silence On Halsey

While Adm. William F. "Bull" Halsey's mighty Anglo-American fleet steamed into its fourth day of radio silence off Japan's battered homeland, some 325 army bombers from Okinawa airfield were dispatched to have wrought fresh havoc in Kyushu, Japan's southernmost home island.

Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, Friday morning communique disclosed that Halsey's smashing carrier blows Monday resulted in the sinking or damaging of 116 Japanese ships, plus the destruction of crippling of 273 planes.

The "final report" on Monday carrier plane sweeps over battered Honshu listed 24 Japanese ships sunk, 92 damaged and 132 aircraft destroyed.

DECLARES JAPAN "TAKING LICKING LYING DOWN"

thing against the Anglo-American Armada, ranging at will close-in to their homeland, they missed the best opportunity they ever had.

"Instead," said Shepherd, who for seven weeks witnessed war in the Pacific as a guest of the Secretary of the Navy, "Not a single Kamikaze—not an enemy plane of any kind—rose in defense of the empire. At least, none that we saw."

Took It Lying Down
"We just stood offshore and shelled them where they live. And they took it lying down. Not because they won't fight, but because they can't. They're licked at sea and in the air."

Pacific consensus on the war's duration, said Shepherd, whose hosts were Gen. Douglas MacArthur and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, is that the war "will end next week, or next month—but certainly no later than next spring."

The publisher, who flew to Leyte gulf, witnessed the "gathering of the world's greatest concentration of firing power."

The vast gulf was literally clogged with ships, he said, "and everyone knows that the Japs were aware of it. But they just waited and took it."

British Navy Joins
This great fleet was joined at sea by substantial elements of the British navy, headed by the King George V, "and the battle for Japan" began, Shepherd continued.

"We just picked our targets and went in and got them."

Shepherd, who insists that words can't convey to the public the fantastic preparedness of America's fighting forces, flew nearly 25,000 miles to eyewitness the war.

On Guam, Shepherd said, "where the native population is 33,000, we have some 200,000 men. One more bulldozer would sink the island."

Foils Jail Break At Somerset, Pa.

SOMERSET, Pa., Aug. 3.—(INS)—

The agile attempts of a 78-year-old jailer to escape being bound and gagged today foiled an attempted jail break by seven inmates of the Somerset County Jail.

The seven men attempted to overpower Grant Snyder as he opened the door to their cell block. He fought the men off as they held him and searched for his key, which hung unnoticed in his hand.

His cries for help were heard by Sheriff John A. Smith and the men were put back in their cells. The sheriff said he would file charges against at least five of the men.

The jail is the same one from which James Henry Kent, convicted murderer escaped May 16. He is still at large.

Truman Missed Plymouth Blast

PLYMOUTH, Pa., Aug. 3.—(INS)—

Residents of Plymouth speculated today as to whether President Truman's visit to this city was shortened by the explosion of a left-over German bomb.

The infernal machine, a medium-sized roll of the blitz days, went off at Plymouth, three miles from Plymouth, a few hours before Mr. Truman's arrival.

Explosions are fairly constant in that area, with detachments of the Royal Engineers carrying out a constant search for bombs.

This particular blast caused a flurry of rumors among local residents awaiting the president's arrival.

Arabian Prince And Detroit Girl Having Romance

Visit To Detroit War Plant Results In Prince Meeting Detroit Stenographer

DETROIT, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Perhaps Kipling was wrong and East may meet West after all.

A royal romance may have resulted from the recent Detroit visit of the son of King Ibn Saud of Saudi Arabia and a dark-eyed Detroit stenographer who may become a royal princess.

Mary Mohammed, 22, former Wave and daughter of Mhien Mohammed, visited His Royal Highness Amir Mohammed Ibn Abdul Aziz in New York recently and admits a nightly telephone call from him.

The two met when the prince, with his brother, was honored at a banquet given by Detroiters of Arabic descent on July 3. The prince, who had attended the San Francisco conference, came to Detroit to inspect war plants as part of a tour of the United States following the conference.

Mary denies marriage, but with sparkling eyes she tells of the trip to New York. Her sister-in-law, Mrs. Joe Mohammed, traveled with her.

A lover's knot of gold with 17 rubies—a smaller one for the sister-in-law—was the prince's parting gift.

Prince Mohammed escorted Mary home from the banquet that July night and she says he stayed and took a taxi with her and her parents. The prince left Detroit early July 6 and the next day Mary received her first long distance call from him.

GUIDE DISAPPEARS UNDER TRUCK THAT HE WAS TO GUIDE

WITH U. S. FORCES ON WESTERN FRONT.—(INS)—The night was so dark and rainy that it was necessary for 1st Lieut. Robert E. Ermer, of Freeport, Ill., supply officer with the 4th Infantry Division, to have a guide walk in front of his truck when he was carrying supplies to the front. He took Private Charles W. Kary of Holmden, Pa., along. They had been creeping some for a while, when Lt. Ermer, missed Kary backtracking a bit, he finally found the GI snarled but shaken. He had fallen into a dip in the road just deep enough for the truck to pass safely over him.

YANKS BOOMERANG NEWEST JAP RUSE

HQ. 4th DIVISION Far Pacific

(INS)—The latest Jap ruse is a boomerang—playing in our hands. The time-honored is used as a ruse to deceive Yank troops during phases of night jungle fighting.

By playing bare of ancient American barbershop quartet halloo, the Nips apparently pass signals and simultaneously attempt to trick the Yanks into believing themselves occupy the positions from which the noise emanates.

To veteran jungle-busters like the 4th Infantry Division the novelty merely serves to reveal the presence of enemy infiltrators. And if the Japs insist on entertaining the men with their would learn a few more modern tunes.

Special Care Keeps Military Auto Parts From Hungry Insects

(International News Service)

TOLEDO, O.—(INS)—Insects on the Philippine islands are on a diet—at least they are not eating replacement parts for military vehicles any more.

Unusual as it may sound the insects that infest the Pacific islands will eat anything they can sink a tooth into. Cork gaskets, fiber bushings, wire insulation—practically anything. But parts now being shipped to the armed forces by the Electric Auto-Lite company are not only weather proof—they are insect proof.

Each separate part is wrapped in a specially treated wax paper and then covered with a chemically treated wax that serves as a dust and water barrier as well as discourages insects. Regardless of the size of the part a generation which weighs to pounds or a fiber bushing which weighs a fraction of an ounce, it is wrapped and wax coated.

All work is done by hand, and in most instances by women. Thousands of different parts are involved in the procedure, which reaches a total of millions per month.

All Was Lost
"I am against war and I hate violence, but when Italy became a friend of Germany, I was lost."

I told Ramsey MacDonald, then British prime minister, "Let's form a coalition from London to Moscow. That is the only way to keep Hitler from causing trouble."

Laval blamed the French defeat on unpreparedness. He asserted that "we entered the war without a single bomber. After three months we had only one."

He asserted the war ministry was responsible for the lack of material.

Laval described Pétain as "Marshall of France and not a politician." He added that all of Pétain's decrees were worthless because they were not approved by the cabinet.

Defense Attorney Ferdinand Favre informed International News Service that if Laval made any charge against Pétain, Laval will demand a postponement of the trial.

Asks Monument To Chicken And Fish

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 3. (INS)—Among the monuments to be erected to the immortals of World War II, will be the statues of both chicken and fish, if J. B. Collins, of Chattanooga, has his way.

If it were not for the chicken and fish, Collins contends, we would all have a new ailment—one caused by the rubbing of belt buckles against backbones. Asserting that the nation's cattle had fallen down on the job of providing enough meat for the country, Collins stressed that fish and chicken kept the toothpick from becoming an antique.

The motion picture industry is exactly 49 years old. It was established in 1896.

Army And Navy Are Rivals Even In Rescue Work

Army Pilot Annoyed When Navy Beats Him To Rescue; Navy's Answer
Unprinted

By PAT ROBINSON
(U.S. Staff Correspondent)

OKINAWA, Aug. 3.—Knew rivalry among Army and Navy air rescue crews today was revealed.

In this rivalry which amounts almost to a competition for airmen downed at sea, amusing incidents develop despite the grim heroic nature of the rescue missions.

A few days ago an army pilot in a rescue plane was circling over the Shomotei area when he saw an American fighter pilot bail out into the Whampoa river.

The army pilot was preparing to make the rescue when from the clouds above him swooped a navy Mariner piloted by Lt. Mervyn Johnson of Los Angeles to pick up the downed airman.

Army Doesn't Like It

"Listen, Navy," the disgruntled Army pilot radioed, "we've got the situation under control. That was our pickup by rights."

Johnson's answer has not been preserved for posterity.

The next day the same army pilot damaged his plane in a rescue attempt and was forced to call for help.

Navy man Johnson was on the job again and swooped down and picked up the army crew. "So everything is still under control, eh army?" was his jibe on this occasion.

The following day Army Lt. Bill Clutterham of Los Angeles spotted Johnson's Mariner, which had cracked up in attempting to rescue a Liberator crew.

Clutterham landed and picked up both downed crews, remarking: "Well, Navy, I guess we're even now and the army still has the situation under control."

IN THE OPEN

up and down our valley is known to my gang simply as "Joe." Joe makes his daily trips on schedule as regularly as a postman carrying the mail. We will hear a lonesome snort and soon Joe will flap slowly along overhead, as if he were to some favorite hangout farther up the creek.

He usually makes the up-valley trip around 12:30. In the evening at about 7 o'clock we will hear his familiar call and have often made a special trip outdoors to watch Joe heading home for the night.

His nearness seemed to have an effect on me and we were certain that Joe was leading a lonely life. However our minds are now at ease. The other evening we heard a regular chorus of the melancholy flight calls of this bird. We raced outdoors to see what was going on, and there came Joe overhead, leading a flock of about a dozen.

My wife told our company with two of our wild neighbors during the late spring. A pair of pheasants nested under our back porch and spent a lot of vocal effort during the proceedings. A pheasant song is not much to talk about in the first place, and he has a habit of keeping it up with a monotonous regularity that is not calculated to improve the morale on one of these "days" when everything goes wrong.

My wife has time and again breathed dire threats against the pheasant when his roundelay became particularly obnoxious. On occasion she has even been known to storm out on the back porch and heave whatever missile came to hand in the general direction of the solace. The other sonnet whose music got under her skin was the wood thrush, who made his home across the valley in the wooded hillside ravines. This bird is a magnificent evening singer, his clear fluting perhaps the most beautiful bird music of this neighborhood.

To me this thrush song became just another singing nuisance. After an evening or two of his best efforts, she promptly dubbed him "Piccolo Pete," and from then on the magic seemed to be gone from his music. It is just naturally impossible to become too ecstatic about a songbird scornfully referred to as Piccolo Pete.

The pert little chipmunks who dwell contentedly about our buildings have completely won the hearts of my folks. We had not been associated with them very long until I began hearing about Archie and Annabelle. To this day every one of these little fellows who shows himself is Archie. Annabelle must be at home with the kids.

Tells Of Attack On Jap Cruiser

Death Throes Of 6,000-Ton
Jap Cruiser In Kure Harbor Are Described

By ELGAR BROWN

WITH ADMIRAL HALSEY'S FLEET OFF JAPAN, Aug. 1—(Declared)—The death throes of the 6,000-ton Jap cruiser, Oyodo, were described today by the leader of the navy bombers and fighters which blasted the enemy warship in Kure harbor.

Lt. John P. Adams, 26-year-old vet of the Coral Sea and Midway battles and son of a Methodist minister, led the formation of navy carrier planes in their strike.

From his Helicat he directed operations of fourteen Avenger bombers, eleven Hellcaters and eleven bomber fighters.

Concentrate On Ship

The air group coordinator had directed the heavy planes to concentrate on the Jap battleship Haruna while the fighters dropped their 500-pound bombs on the Oyodo.

Though five days earlier the Oyodo showed no damage as we arrived," Adams reported. "She began losing multi-colored flak—heavy and accurate. Yet in all our attacks only one American plane was slightly damaged.

We formed groups of four and came down almost simultaneously from 9,000 feet. We literally dived through sheets of flak at 420 knots and our vertical speed was the only thing that saved us.

Bombs stuck in one of our planes but of ten bombs dropped five hit and five scored near misses. The cruiser rocked and swayed and then burst into flames and a series of terrific explosions.

Usefulness Over

"After seven dives in thirty seconds we rendezvoused and got out of there."

Clear pictures later showed the Oyodo sinking on its side on the surface—her usefulness in this war definitely ended.

Adams flew from the old Yorktown in the early days of the war.
The modern carrier technique is no better than the methods of the old days, he insists. He knows however, that the days of to-day are slugging between carriers is ended.

"Now we just overwhelm the enemy with the numbers of our flat-tops and planes," he says.

Flies From Europe Strikes Parked Auto
In South Mill Street

Pfc. William L. Harkins, husband of Mrs. Anna Harkins of 206 N.
Walnut street, and son of Mrs. David William of Barrington avenue, has arrived in this country from the European theater of operations.

Mrs. Harkins received a phone call from her husband at Camp Kame-hameh, N. J., yesterday stating that he had flown to the states from Seoul.

Pfc. Harkins has been in service for five years and served throughout the European campaign with the infantry of the ninth division, ending in South Italy, France and Germany. He has been overseas for three years. Pfc. Harkins will return to his home here after receiving his honorable discharge at Camp Kamehameh.

Auto And Pole Damaged In Crash

Although no persons were hurt, an auto operated by Pfc. Kenneth Jamison, 116 North Ray street, was damaged, as was a telephone pole at the sharp turn in Butler avenue near Paul street early this morning.

According to his report to city police, Pfc. Jamison was driving his father's auto east, and when the car arrived at the curve, another auto driven by a sailor "cut in"
ahead of the car driven by Jamison.

This caused the car driven by Jamison to strike a telephone pole, causing considerable damage to it and the car. However, none of the occupants of the car were reported hurt.

PEZZONE BOYS

MEET IN HAWAII

While enjoying a recent trip in Hawaii, Pfc. Samuel Pezzone of the Navy finally met his brother,
Sgt. James Pezzone of the Army.

This is their first meeting in five years. The boys enjoyed a week's stay together, spending a great deal of the time talking about their home and friends.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carolina Pezzone, reside at 6 West Home avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Pezzone are secretly awaiting the arrival home of their son, Sgt. Pezzone, as he expects to be discharged from service in the near future.

LIGHT WAS BURNING
PITTSBURGH—(INS)—In No-

ember, 1944, shortly after he was captured by the Germans, Sgt. Pez-zone wrote his mother in Pittsburgh, Pa., a letter in which he told her that he was alive and was being held in a prison camp in Korea.

Robert of Mr. Westinghouse, 601 1st street, and his son, Samuel, who was captured by the Germans, were held in a prison camp in Korea. The boys were held in a prison camp in Korea.

Pittsburgh Made Artillery Proves Worth In War

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 3. (INS)—Pittsburgh-made artillery has proved its worth on two far-flung battlefields, army ordnance officials have revealed.

The 75-millimeter kickless artillery pieces along with the 37 millimeter recoilless rifle, have moved to the Pacific theatre from Germany where their effectiveness surprised the Nazis on the Rhine river.

Okinawa with its rough terrain and numerous Jap pillboxes and snipers made the use of conventional artillery impossible. On this tiny island the Pittsburgh weapons received the acid test and succeeded in pin-pointing their fire into caves and obstructions with great accuracy.

Army Chow Assuages Former GI's Nostalgia

PORT LEWIS, Wash., Aug. 3. (INS)—Members of a Pennsylvania company didn't leave their chow when they sent their discharged surplus. Lawrence A. Ziegler, 49, sitting at a mess hall table when they came into dinner. They knew the former first class cook of the outfit had been working in nearby Tacoma.

"I was homesick for the army and put on my uniform again," he explained. "Really, I missed the grub."

His nostalgia assuaged by army chow, Ziegler shook hands with his buddies and departed—just a poor, homesick civilian again.

Fated Bomber Was Ascending At Time C. New York Crash

NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Findings of the city fire marshal established today that the fog-bound army bomber which struck the Empire State building Saturday, causing 14 deaths, was ascending at the time of the crash.

The marshal's report indicated that the plane was desperately trying to lift its B-25 Mitchell over the building when it loomed before him suddenly in a fog.

The fog, according to official weather reports, caused visibility to decrease by 900 feet within a few minutes after the crash.

The army meanwhile continued its investigation into the disaster, with more than 50 witnesses questioned so far.

Wife Will Stand By 'Marrying Captain'

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Mrs. Ruth Schultz, 23, whose husband, Capt. Carl G. Schultz, was ordered court-martialed in Germany for his marriage to a WAC sergeant from Brooklyn, declared today she would stand by him.

"Carl was a good husband," she said. "He was the father of our two good children. He probably needs us now more than ever and we will help him through."

Feeling that he may be mentally ill, she planned writing to Lt. Col. Alfred Osgood and Maj. Arthur Summerfield, assigned as the captain's counsel, giving them details she thinks may help his case.

Conservation was caused at the home of Mrs. Schultz when news came from Germany that her husband had married WAC Sgt. Kathleen Koudoukian in a civil ceremony and that a second, religious ceremony was to be performed last Sunday. The latter was cancelled by army authorities when it was learned he had a wife and two children in Chicago.

More Cabinet Members Named

LONDON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee submitted additional names for his labor cabinet to King George VI today in a private audience with his majesty in Buckingham Palace.

Six members of Attlee's "inner cabinet" received their seals of office from the king last week before Prime Minister Attlee returned to Potsdam as the new British delegate to the big three conference.

KOENIGSBURG

The city of Koenigsburg, when the big three proposes to turn over to Soviet Russia, is the capital of East Prussia, with a population of more than 300,000.

Koenigsburg first grew up around a castle built in 1253 by the Teutonic order near the fishing village of Stendamm. Destroyed by the Prussians in 1263, it was rebuilt on its present site on the banks of the Pregel river.

The town entered the Hanseatic league in 1349. From 1455 to 1525 Koenigsburg was the residence of the grand master of the Teutonic order and after that—until 1618—of the dukes of Prussia. It subsequently suffered much damage from the great northern wars, not recovering until the 17th century.

In more recent times Koenigsburg became an important naval and military fortress as well as a center of commerce and a place of learning. Among numerous famous professors at the city university, founded in 1544, was the German metaphysician Immanuel Kant.

Planes May Improve Juice Production

CHICAGO, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Auburn tomato plants—45,000 of them—held the promise of improvement in postwar tomato juice production today.

John T. Knowles, director of research for Libby's McNeil & Libby Co., which transported the plants by air from Adel, Ga., to the company's farms in Blue Island, Ill., said the vines arrived in better condition and will bear more fruit ten days sooner than plants transported by railroad.

The company has obtained German prisoners of war to help process the tomatoes.

Makers Of 'DDT' Must Tint Poison Distinctive Color

HARRISBURG, Aug. 3.—(INS)—The agriculture department warned prospective manufacturers of DDT that the insecticide cannot be sold in its natural white form but must be tinted a distinctive color.

"It must be clearly understood and emphasized," the department stated, "that DDT in any form is toxic to man and must not be allowed to come into contact with food."

The powder must be tinted, it was explained, to prevent it being mistaken for powdered sugar, baking powder, soda or other harmless substances.

Scientists Approve Grandma's Remedies

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Science has proved that grandma really knew her vegetables when she fumigated the disease-laden air of a sick-room by boiling a pot of onions.

Russian chemists have learned that onion vapors have bactericidal properties which can be used to heal infected wounds according to Edward P. Kolman, a Philadelphia chemist.

Onions were one of grandma's stock-in-trade remedies whether for curing a common cold or a baby's fever.

Chaplain Attempts Matchmaking; Finds Lady Already Wed

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Chaplain F. C. Black, USNR, formerly of suburban Pittsburgh but now in the Pacific tells about the time the new steward of the U.S.S. Fulton came to him distressed about his "girl back in the states."

"I played cupid for him in writing a letter in his behalf and received a beautifully written letter of thanks from the young lady," the chaplain said. "Everything seemed rosy. The new steward called to thank me, his black face beaming with pleasure and gratitude."

"About a month later he came around again, terribly agitated. He explained that the girl's husband had come home from jail and was unhappy about the whole affair, including my letter."

"After that I always ask first if the lady has a husband before I write in behalf of her lovesick romance," the chaplain explained.

At the time Chaplain Black entered the navy in 1941, he was pastor of the Sunset Hills United Presbyterian church. Since then his family has moved to New Wilmington, Pa.

Erie Vigilantes Ride Once Again To Trap Rustlers

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 3.—(INS)—The smoking six-shooters and galloping horses are gone but the vigilantes are riding again.

Farmers along the lake shore of Erie county have dusted off an old protective charter and have banded together to end cattle rustling in this section.

These modern night riders are meeting fire with fire. Prior to their banding together, rustlers drove to the back pastures and loaded cattle into trucks bound for market. The automobile may be less glamorous than a horse in tracking down thieves but the farmers are too concerned over their cattle to worry about that.

Like their forebears, the Erie vigilantes desire swift justice. They advocate speedy apprehension of criminals and trials free from red tape and petty judicial technicalities.

"These men do not plan 'nocturnal parties' but they are determined to stamp out rustling as silently and swiftly as the rope once eliminated it for their ancestors."

NEW RECORD FOR GREEN PEA CROP

HARRISBURG, Aug. 3.—Although many Pennsylvania farm crops were greatly retarded by cool, wet spring weather, conditions were so favorable to green peas for processing that growers in the State this year achieved the second highest yield per acre in the United States.

According to information received by the Department of Agriculture, through the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service, an all-time record, Pennsylvania yield of 2,500 pounds of shelled peas per acre was obtained this year. In only one other State, Utah, did growers obtain a higher record with an average of 2,750 pounds per acre.

Much of the State's 1945 record production of 24,750 tons of shelled peas will be processed for use of the Armed Forces. This compares with 16,150 tons last year and the 10-year average of slightly less than 8,000 tons.

The growing of peas for canning in Pennsylvania has made a remarkable increase in recent years. Department officials declared. The 1945 acreage of 19,800 is more than twice the average of 8,370 acres harvested in the 10-year period, 1934-43. This record acreage exceeds that of last year by 3,400 acres. The increase in yield per acre also has made record strides. The 2,500-pound average for this year compares with 1,850 in 1944 and the 10-year average of 1,560, a gain.

Three Escaped German Officers Being Hunted

Report On Shooting Of Three Other German Prisoners Will Be Made Today

OVING, Colo., Aug. 3.—(INS)—Findings in the case of Pvt. Harold W. Garland of Columbus, Ind., who shot and killed three German prisoners of war, were to be reported today to Camp Carson, Colo., officials.

Meantime, search for three escaped, high-ranking Nazi SS officers was intensified to determine whether they had a part in the reported escape and slaying of the three German POWs killed at Oving.

The Nazi SS officers, who have evaded G-men and military intelligence officers, escaped from Camp Hale, Colo., last Sunday.

A lieutenant colonel headed the investigation board from Camp Carson in questioning 23-year-old Garland regarding the shooting incident in a potato field which the prisoners were working.

Garland, member of the Purple Heart for an arm wound suffered in the North African campaign, said the Germans provoked the shooting by first refusing to work and then making threatening remarks at him. He reported he used his carbine to block the prisoners' moves to attack him, seize his gun and escape.

Pending outcome of the Oving investigation, Camp Carson officials refused to say whether Garland would be forced to stand before a court martial. Should the investigation show that he fired his carbine in justifiable performance of his duty, there would be no court martial.

Precautions To Guard Against Polio Are Urged

Precautions against poliomyelitis or infantile paralysis during August and September were urged today by C. Ed Smith, Jr., president of the Greater New Castle Association. The United States Chamber of Commerce is conducting a campaign of precaution against the dread disease and the GNCA has received copies of the suggestions. "The most important fact to remember about infantile paralysis," said Mr. Smith "is to call a doctor promptly for anyone who has any of its symptoms. These include moderate fever, headache, vomiting and constipation, drowsiness alternating with irritability, stiffness of neck and spine, trembling and other signs which a doctor can detect better than a patient.

"Although the chance of an individual acquiring infantile paralysis is ordinarily only about 1 in 10,000 during a year, and only 1 in several hundred even during an epidemic, precautions are advisable when poliomyelitis is prevalent, during an epidemic, precautions control measures include:

Early diagnosis and reporting of the disease; isolation of infected persons for 2 weeks from onset; immediate disinfection of all nose, throat, or other bodily discharges of infected persons, and of articles soiled by such discharges; search for and expert diagnosis of sick children to locate unrecognized and unreported cases.

During epidemics all children with fever should be isolated in bed until they have been examined by a doctor; bed rest is particularly important for persons found to have the disease. Children should be protected as much as possible against unnecessary contact with persons outside their own homes during epidemics. Unnecessary travel, physical strain, and nose and throat operations should be avoided when the prevalence of poliomyelitis is high.

Fighter Uses Fists; Wife Seeks Divorce

CAMDEN, N. J. Aug. 3.—(INS).—An examiner in Camden Chancery Court recommended a divorce today for Mrs. Rocco Auletto, who charged that her husband, a former prize fighter, hadn't forgotten how to use his fists although he has been out of the ring for 15 years. She said her mate, who fought under the name of Toxie Allen, while a lightweight contender, began blacking her eyes soon after they were married last year and kept it up until she left him two months later.

Four Of Six Gregor Boys Home On Leave

Veterans Of Many Battles Against Axis Foes Enjoying Reunion At Home Here

Up at 1120 Cunningham avenue, there is a joyous reunion going on this week, as four of the six sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Gregor are home on leave after seeing some real service in the various battle areas throughout the world. They are Sgt. Francis Gregor and Cpl. Edwin Gregor of the 13th Armored Division, one of the hard-fighting units which chased the Nazis from Normandy to inner Germany; Seaman I. C. Harry Gregor, who has been in service for many months in the Pacific area with the navy, and First Lt. John Gregor, 79th Division, who suffered serious wounds in the fighting against the Nazis in Germany on April 1.

The boys have been coming in one by one during the week, and yesterday, Lt. John got in from New York, where he is still undergoing treatment at an army hospital. The reunion was marked only by the absence of First Lt. William R. Gregor, in service in the Pacific theater with the Air Corps of the U. S. Marines; and Pvt. Robert Gregor, U. S. Marines, the youngest of the boys, who left last month. Adding to the enjoyment of their meeting, most of them having not seen each for several years, is the fact that their cousin, Sgt. Dick Morgan, who was badly wounded in France last October, and who has been undergoing treatment at the Walter Reed hospital, in Washington, is also home on an extended leave.

Nelson Leading Canadian Open

TORONTO, Aug. 3.—(INS).—Byron Nelson of Toledo and Victor Ghezzi of Atlantic City, N. J., were tied for the lead in the $10,000

Canadian Open golf championship today as second-round play began.

Each shot a 68 for the opening 18 holes.

Third was Willie Goggin, of White Plains, N. Y., who equaled par with 70.

Nelson, aiming for his tenth straight tournament triumph, du-pledged Ghezzi's outgoing and incoming cards by shooting a 34 on each nine.

One thousand young birds perished when fire swept a brooder house at state farm and in the May blizzard thousands of pheasant and turkie eggs were lost when a power cut-off shut off the heat in brooder houses.

PHASANT SHORTAGE

Need More Mechanics In U.S. Asserts Babson

By ROGER W. BABSON
(Copyright, 1945, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc.)

BABSON PARK, Mass., Aug. 3.—Three reports happened to reach my desk within a few days of each other. The first tells of the great Scientific Congress recently held in Russia.

BABSON

The second report, from the United States returned to tell us that the Soviet aim to give the youth of Russia vast educational opportunities in science. The second report, from the United States returned to tell us that the Soviet aim to give the youth of Russia vast educational opportunities in science.

Nation Of Edison

Thomas Edison himself in person once stated to me in substance: "People call me a great inventor but I tell you, Babson, there is no reason why this nation cannot have thousands of Edisons. I mean there should be thousands of men and women who, if they would, could learn trades and could produce useful inventions." Therefore I heartily applaud the program of the wartime Office of Scientific Research and Development. But remember that the basis of any such program requires more young people to first become proficient in some one practical every-day trade.

Not every young man and woman is endowed with aptitudes for the natural sciences. I hope that somewhere in the program an unfolding place will appear for young people whose talents are for the more practical things of life. After all, we know that great oaks come only from small acorns. This brings me back to the third report to which I referred above. What about the letter from the high school teacher in the mid-west? It reads in effect:

Economics and Humanities

"Returning servicemen will be greatly needed to work at trades in small towns. Rural areas need—and will continue to need—plumbers, painters, plasterers, paper hangers and electricians. I have always lived a part of each year on the farm. During the school term I live in the homes of citizen workers. Some of my relatives are salesmen. I hear all sides (farm folk, industrial and business employees) and I see how each would benefit by better understanding of the other. To me it seems that world unity as well as community welfare, will best be promoted by home unity through better understanding of our nearest neighbors."

This neighborly message has real significance today because it speaks for the people who must put any American program for either full employment or world peace into practical action. No chief executive on earth, whether Marshal Stalin or President Truman, or any other honored leader, can lead without followers. In the end it will be the citizens—particularly the citizenry now in schools—who will be the chief executives of any program.

Senator Assails American Policy On Food Rations

Declares That Policy Is 'To Let Our People Go Hungry And Feed
The World'

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Sen. Tom Stewart (D-Tenn., chairman of a small business subcommittee, charged today that American policy is "to let our people go hungry and feed the world."

Stewart said he plans to expose facts in the situation at a hearing next week. He contended that the people of England have a greater ration of needed fats and oils than the United States.

"Right now we are sending fats and oils to England, an essential part of diet, and their ration allowance for these is higher than it is in the United States," he said.

Stewart said that before the war our per capita consumption of these materials and lard was 48 pounds and that it has been cut to 28 thru rationing. The British allocation, he said, is several pounds above the American.

"The truth is that our people in the south are really suffering from this lack," he said. "Field hands are quitting their jobs, because of lack of vital food, and are going into the towns where the work is not so hard. These workers have to have this type of food."

Stewart, who recently visited Europe, declared that people in liberated countries, such as France, are not helping themselves but are depending on American aid.

He said that only in Germany did he see people really working to produce food in all sections, although he added that the French farmers in Normandy are doing a good job.

WILKES-BARRE—Signs of the times: Four restaurants were burglarized by a meat-hungry robber who took ration points in preference to rifling cash registers.

J. J. Lawson was named war secretary and Viscount Stansgate secretary for air.

Also appointed to complete the cabinet were James Chuter Ede, home secretary; Lord Addison, dominions secretary; Penrick Lawrence, secretary for India; G. H. Hall, colonial secretary; Emanuel Shinwell, minister of fuel; Philip Noel Baker, minister of state; G. A. Isaacs, labor minister; and Ellen Wilkinson, education minister.

Also Aneurin Bevan, minister of health; Sir Ben Smith, minister of food; Tom Williams, agriculture minister; John Wilmot, supply minister; and Alfred Barnes, war transport minister.

Lord Addison was named leader of the House of Lords, to which Lawrence will be elevated by bestowal of a barony.

Joseph Westwood became secretary of state for Scotland; Wilfred Paine, minister of pensions; and William Whiteley, parliamentary secretary of the treasury.

When meat is lacking in the diet

The answer is baked beans of course.

Home Plan Asks 1,250,000 Homes In Single Year

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—A 10-year national housing program aimed at construction of 12,500,000 new dwelling units a year—nearly five times the pre-war average—was recommended by a Senate post-war study committee.

At the same time, Senators Robert F. Wagner (D-N. Y.) and Allen J. Ellender (D-La.) members of the committee, introduced legislation calling for extension of federal mortgage guarantees to new fields and an outright federal contribution for housing of $14,000,000 in the first year with annual increases to raise the total to $133,000,000 at the end of five years.

Program Outlined
Embraced in the program are continued low-rent public housing, aid for cities to redevelop blighted and slum areas, continued federal insurance of mortgages on small homes (the FHA plan), guarantee of income for investors who agree to a low return on investments in housing, and aid for farm housing.

Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio), who headed the study group, said "the building of a million and a quarter homes a year would stimulate an expenditure upwards of $5,000,000,000 to $6,000,000,000 annually and, directly and indirectly, provide for three to four million jobs.

Curing Blighted Areas
The plan for aid to cities redeveloping blighted areas calls for local agencies to acquire the land, clear it and prepare for redevelopment. The federal government would make annual contributions thereafter to enable the city to lease the land, or sell it, at a figure which would interest private developers.

There is provision also for federal loans to the cities.

No Chance To Escape Hayfever This Year; Peak Of Season Near

Heavy Ragweed Crop Promises
More Trouble Than Usual For Those Who Can't Get Away

HARRISBURG, Aug. 2.—Little time remains in which to bring any degree of relief to the legion of ragweed variety of hayfever sufferers, the State Department of Agriculture reminded today.

Ragweed, of which several varieties are to be found in the State, is due to bloom soon and by August 15 will be spreading countless tons of sneeze-inducing pollen. Wet weather has brought an unusually heavy crop of ragweed this year, it is reported. Authorities claim that 90 per cent of all hayfever cases east of the Mississippi river are caused by ragweed.

"Now it's down now," department botanists suggest. But with the labor shortage and all, it looks as though slight relief from that direction will be available to the one in 10 Pennsylvania humans who each mid-August succumb to the inevitable ragweed and sneeze, grumble and talk about going to the seashore or mountains.

But with travel conditions as they are, most will have to stay at home, grin and bear it.

Hen Lays Six Eggs In One Afternoon

One of the hens in the flock of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Goodhart of Mt. Jackson road has just completed an outstanding egg laying stunt. Wednesday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Goodhart let their fowls out about 4 in the afternoon into the yard. They saw one of the hens, a white leghorn, lay four eggs on the ground and before getting on the roost for the night she laid two more eggs on the floor of the coop.

The Goodharts say that the first and sixth egg laid by this pullet were perfectly normal, with the shell good and firm. The shell of the intervening eggs was somewhat thin. The hen was getting around as usual on Thursday, none the worse for its wonderful egg production of the day before.

Kyushu Badly Battered And Wrecked Island

OKINAWA, Aug. 3.—(INS)—

Kyushu, southernmost island of the Japanese homeland, today was labeled the land of "happy hunting grounds" for the Fifth and Seventh Air Forces.

Gen. Curtis LeMay, commander of the Fifth Air Force, today said the island was the most heavily bombed area during the last 12 days.

On Kyushu three cities were completely wiped out, two others severely damaged, 84,000 tons of Japanese merchant shipping were sunk and an additional 124,000 tons including one battleship were damaged during the 12 days, General LeMay said.

Scores of war planes, including one bomber, were shot down and many bridges were left smoldering and untraversable.

The Japanese government today said that the island's population was 10 million. The American military sweeps over the entire Japanese mainland.

POWERS OF WAR-MAKING STRIPPED FROM GERMANY

The communists cited the fact that Italy was the first of the Axis powers to break with Germany, to whose defeat she has made a material contribution, and has now joined with the Allies in the struggle against Japan.

Treatment Of Spain
Aside from the reparations question, whereby Germany is to be stripped of all industrial equipment which might be used to wage war, and left only her necessary peace-time industry under rigid controls.

Spain appeared to have won on only one point. That was the treatment to be accorded Spain. The declaration said:

"The three governments feel bound, however, to make clear that they for their part would not favor any application for membership put forward by the present Spanish government which, having been founded with the support of the Axis powers, does not, in view of its origin, its nature, its record and its close association with the aggressor states, possess the qualifications necessary to justify such membership."

Main Decisions
These were the main decisions:

1. A permanent council of foreign ministers, composed of representatives of Britain, China, France, the United States and the Soviet Union, will set up peace conference machinery. Italy, Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary and Finland shall have priorities in the arrangement of peace treaties. The council will meet in London before September 1.

2. Reparations will be assessed immediately by taking from Germany all industrial equipment not necessary to her postwar peaceful role. The Allies will get the foreign assets of Germany and shares in German industry held abroad in all countries excepting Bulgaria, Romania, Hungary and Finland. They go to Russia.

3. Russia will get 25 per cent of the non-peace-time industrial equipment in the Allied occupation zone and will pay for 15 per cent in food and other essential raw materials needed in the Allied zones. Poland will get her cut of these reparations from the Russians.

4. Freedom of press coverage will be established in Poland before the publication of the election results. The Allied press will also be admitted to Austria, Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania and Finland.

5. Arrangements will be made to integrate the economy of Germany into the general European economy and first effort will be given to the restoration of transportation, coal and agricultural production.

6. Temporarily Poland's boundaries will take in the area east of the Oder and Neisse rivers, going to Czechoslovakia. Russia will retain the historic Prussian military city of Königsberg and much of East Prussia.

7. By implication, the Allies seemed to have added to Russia claims to the Baltic republics of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

War Criminals
8. The deadlock of the war crimes commission in London on the trial of German war criminals whose offenses have "no particular geographical localization" is to be broken with the first list of defendants—passing involving Goering—will be made public before September 1.

9. Italy is to have a priority in the arrangement of a peace treaty which would permit her to join the United Nations. This is possibly a diplomatic victory for Mr. Truman.

10. The resettlement of Germans in Poland, Czechoslovakia and Hungary is to be handled on a humanitarian basis. A commission is set up to determine the rate at which these can be repatriated.

11. Germany shall be controlled to the end of eliminating Nazi influence by destroying cartels and other monopolistic arrangements, discharging Nazi public officials, and controlling education and other cultural activities.

For Further Discussion
Left for further discussion—although no future meeting of the "Big Three" was promised—were:

1. Exact delineation of European boundaries and the future of Italian colonies.

2. Disposition of the German navy and merchant fleet.

3. Extension of the authority of the present Viceroy Austrian provisional government set up by Moscow without consultation with the western powers—to all of Austria.

4. Exact determination of the Polish boundaries.

5. All questions involving Greece, Yugoslavia and the Near East, including the Dardanelles.

STILL BATTLING OREGON FIRE

PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 3.—(INS)—

Oregon's four-week-old 90,000-acre Tillamook forest fire was today a battle of burning snags, which leaped new trails to threaten a sawmill and town.

Reinforcements in men and equipment poured into the danger zone opposite the Consolidated Timber Company sawmill and its community of 60 homes near Glenwood.

A backfire scorched a protective belt around the camp while water pumps "cooled" the area and men dug new trails for more battle to save the mill, which already has been saved many times.

The town of Cochran breathed with relief as fire trails were completed across the path of flames one mile distant. The forest grove city water shed also remained free of flames as city volunteer parties patrolled the lines day and night.

DERMATOPHYTOSIS

That is a very different name to pronounce. The disease is hard to cure.

It means a disease which is due to molds in the skin. It usually affects the feet. The skin between the toes gets soft and peels off. There is some itching or burning. Sores may form and there may be some bleeding.

The disease is contagious. The molds may be picked up from floors or carpets or bedding.

Good care of the feet helps to prevent this disease. The feet should be washed often with soap. Stockings should be changed often. The feet should be kept as dry as possible. They should be exposed to the air frequently.

W.L.B. Will Refer Montgomery-Ward Issue To Davis

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—

The War Labor Board today voted unanimously to refer Montgomery Ward's non-compliance with WLB directives in seven cities to Economic Stabilizer William H. Davis for action.

Properties of the huge mail-order chain in a half dozen other communities already are being operated by the army pending the outcome of a supreme court test to determine whether the seizure was constitutional.

Today's WLB action involves the refusal of Ward's to obey maintenance of union membership and wage orders covering stores in seven other localities. The cities are Pueblo, Colo.; Baltimore, Md.; Kansas City, Kans.; Kansas City, Mo.; Trenton, N. J.; Washington, Pa., and Barre, Vt.

Charges Congress Probes Useless

Congressman Asserts Thousands Of Dollars Being Wasted On Probing Journeys

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Rep. Cochran (D) Mo., official "watchdog" of the House legislative expenditures, declared today that Congress is wasting thousands of dollars on "useless" investigations.

Cochran, as chairman of the House Accounts committee, must approve all vouchers calling for the expenditure of House legislative funds.

Some Complaints

The Missouri congressman complained that:

1. Congress was permitting numerous investigating committees to "duplicate each others' work—a ridiculous situation."

2. Traveling congressmen were threatening to involve the United States in international complications.

3. Military leaders in the field were forced to take time off from their prosecution of the war "to show the committees around."

4. An attempt by House Speaker Rayburn to confine investigations this year to two already underway was overridden by the House which went ahead and authorized 29.

President Truman recently directed that traveling congressmen must hereafter pay their own way when using Army and Navy planes unless their trips are officially authorized by Congress.

Traveling Congressmen

Cochran pointed out, however, that executive departments are authorized in their appropriation bills to take congressional groups on "field inspection trips." The expenses are borne by the department.

"There is now a group of congressmen in Alaska at Interior department expense," commented Cochran, "and another in the Pacific traveling at the expense of the Navy department."

The danger of an international incident is continuously present, warned the congressman, as a result of so many trips abroad.

"Two Polish-speaking congressmen are planning to visit Poland," he stated. "Suppose they line up with the opposing factions there. Another group is going overseas to study the oil situation. Oil is a ticklish question in some of the Near Eastern countries."

"What could be more ridiculous," he added, "for three different congressional committees to be investigating the Pan-American highway. Yet that's just what is being done by the House Military Affairs committee, the House Roads committee and the Senate War Investigation committee." The House Foreign Affairs committee was also reported considering making a similar investigation.

"What Congress needs," declared Cochran, "is an efficiently staffed joint research group to gather the facts and make them available to regular committees."

NEWS AND VIEWS AT CAPITAL

HARRISBURG, Aug. 3.—(INS)—Reports that the Democratic state committee would soon elect Gen. George C. Marshall, army chief of staff and native Pennsylvanian, for the gubernatorial nomination were held to be "very inaccurate" by a leading Democrat at the capital. He said "a more likely choice" for the 1950 election would be Gen. Earl B. Spauld, of Berks county, or former State Senator John R. Rife of Berks county. He added that the Democrats might attempt to "put up" a military figure against possible candidates on the GOP ticket of Lt. Col. Jay Cooke of Philadelphia and Gov. Martin, a retired army general, for the U. S. senate. Most of the speculation and suggestions "at this early date" merely served as "straws in the wind," he added.

Governor Martin, active in politics for more than 45 years, has attempted to smooth over factional differences in various sections of the state. His intense interest in local politics has been an indication to some Capitol Hill politicians that he intends to run for the U. S. senate "if conditions are right" even though he currently denies any political ambitions.

The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission has unearthed a letter written by Thomas Jefferson in 1816 containing a lock of his hair. The note was discovered by the research bureau while sifting a batch of manuscripts upon which a compilation of Jefferson's writings will be based. According to State Historian S. K. Stevens, the letter was mounted on an old picture frame and had been presented to the state in 1875 by Maj. Elbridge McConkey, a Harrisburg attorney and resident clerk of the state house of representatives.

The epistle was written to introduce an English agriculture student, George Fowler, to a Maryland planter, Col. Thomas Randolph. The strands of graying red hair had been clipped from Jefferson the day he died by his grandson-in-law, Nicholas Trist, who presented them along with the letter to a relative of McConkey.

The death of Health Secretary A. H. Stewart came as no surprise to colleagues on Capitol Hill. The 63-year-old official who was a deputy in the department under a commission issued by ex-Gov. Arthur H. James, was under tremendous pressure in his $10,000 a year post. His failing health was aggravated by the U. S. Civil Service Commission's charge that he had violated the federal Hatch act which prohibits members of Congress from receiving pay for political reasons. The Republican official wrathfully denied the allegations and accused the Democratic-dominated commission of playing politics. It was rumored he would have resigned if the move had not been stayed by the governor.

Appeal Is Made For Production Of Commercial Planes

WASHINGTON, Aug. 3.—(INS)—War Mobilization Director John V. Snyder today considered an appeal from airplane manufacturers for right to produce commercial planes, and thus aid airlines in expanding services during the period of transportation difficulties.

The appeal was laid before Snyder by Sen. Warren Wagoner (D) Wash., after conferring with airplane manufacturers. He said the consensus is that the planes can be produced without injury to the war effort. Materials are available, it was reported.

"It is imperative in the need for additional equipment for airlines," he said.

Martinson pointed out that 95 per cent of passengers on airlines are on a priority basis and thus aiding the war effort.
